

Make my soul Your cherished dwelling place, Your home of rest. Let me never leave You there alone, but keep me there all absorbed in You, in living faith adoring You. Prayer from Elizabeth of the Trinity (Carmelite Nun)

"The spirit," says St. Paul, "comes to the aid of our weakness; when we do not know what prayer to offer, to pray as we ought, the Spirit Himself intercedes for us, with groans beyond all utterance." Down in the depths of our fallen nature he is at work, reinterpreting us to ourselves, subtly fashioning us, according to the measure of the perfect Man – in Christ – without our knowledge, but not, perhaps without our asking for it. Msgr. Ronald Knox, The Layman and His Conscience.
