

An Instrument of Our Lady

“Let us imagine ourselves to be a little brush in the hands of an infinitely perfect painter. What must the little brush do so that the painting will be as beautiful as possible? It must let itself be directed most perfectly. A little brush could still advance pretexts to improve the painting done by an earthly, limited, fallible painter, but when God, the eternal Wisdom, uses us as instruments, then we will do the most, in the most perfect way, when we let ourselves be guided most perfectly and totally.

By the act of consecration we have offered ourselves to the Immaculate as her absolute property. Without doubt she is the most perfect instrument in the hands of God, while we, for our part, must be instruments in her immaculate hands.

When, therefore, will we destroy most rapidly and most perfectly the evil that exists in the whole world? When we let ourselves be guided by her in the most perfect way. This is the most important thing, the unique thing.

I said “unique”. In fact, each one of us must occupy himself solely in harmonizing, conforming, fusing, as it were, completely his own will with the will of the Immaculate, just as her will is completely united to the Will of God, her heart with the Heart of her Son Jesus....

We must, therefore, concentrate all our attention on this, uniquely on this: to unite ourselves most closely with the hand of our Mistress, our Leader, to meld ourselves to it so that she might do with us what she wills. This is the essential condition for belonging to the M.I. : “Consecrate oneself totally to the Immaculate as an instrument in her immaculate hands.”

Then and only then will we be subject to the Immaculate and, through her, unite, fuse the whole world and every single soul with the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus through the fire of love.”

~ St. Maximilian Kolbe, Founder of the M. I.
