

March 17th is, of course, St. Patrick's Day!

Isn't it a rotten shame to see t-shirts with shamrocks proclaiming, "Happy Drinking Day!"? Let us celebrate the feast of this great sainted missionary in a more fitting way, with prayers, good works, and joyful Catholic celebration, suitably subdued for Lent.

"After founding churches in plenty, after consecrating monasteries, after baptizing the men of Ireland, after great endurance and great labor, after destroying idols and images, after rebuking many kings who did not do his will, and raising up those who did his will, after ordaining three hundred and three score and ten bishops, after ordaining three thousand priests and folk of every grade in the Church besides, after fasting and prayer, after mercy and clemency, after gentleness and mildness to the Sons of Life, after love of God and his neighbors, he received Christ's Body from the Bishop Tassach, and he then sent his spirit to Heaven." ~ The Tripartite Life of St. Patrick, 9th century.

"No other man before or since ever travelled so far or accomplished so much for God and for Ireland, in the face of so many difficulties and dangers, as was accomplished by St. Patrick. St. Paul, in self-defense, gives an account of his own labors. St. Patrick, also in self-defense, refers to his own toils and perils and success in preaching the Gospel, and in truth they were not less, so far as we can judge, than those of the great Apostle of the Gentiles."
~ Most Rev. Dr. Healy, "The Life and Writings of St. Patrick", 1905.

Take the Technology Detox Challenge! There are three challenges: No television, Limited Computer (work and necessity only), and Limited Smartphone (work and necessity only), with a 3-day, 7-day, or "Until Easter" option for each. To sign up and get your badge, or for more information, visit www.sspix.org/en/challenge.

You Can Perform an Act of Lenten Almsgiving by sponsoring a pilgrim for the Pascua Pilgrimage 2018, and/or by offering to pay for the medical insurance of a Dominican nun of Avrille, France. Please see the flyers for these two opportunities for acts of charity in the vestibule.

Volunteers are Needed to Clean the Church. Please contact Mrs. Victoria Banks or Fr. McDonald for information on how to help!

PARISH ANNOUNCEMENTS

Today is Holy Name Sunday. The members will process in together, and receive Communion as a body. After Mass, they will recess together to the Cemetery. The meeting will take place in the Lower Academy.

Today's second collection will be for our school.

The Academy kicked off its 11th annual Jogathon on March 7th. Please support this very important school fundraiser, and pray for its continued success!

Tomorrow, the Eucharistic Crusade will have their monthly meeting at 3:45 pm. Please bring your completed treasure sheets.

This Tuesday, pray for the 12th-graders as they take the National Religion Exam.

This Friday, the Stations of the Cross will be prayed at 7 pm.

This Saturday, the St. Stephen's Guild will polish in preparation for Holy Week. Please make every effort to come and help!

Next Sunday, March 18th, come and celebrate the feasts of Saints Patrick (March 17th) and Joseph (March 19th), with our annual St. Joseph/St. Patrick Table in the church basement! The Holy Name members will provide a lasagna dinner (for a donation), and the "Table" will offer bread, other baked goods, and religious articles. Fr. McDonald will have a live auction for several Irish baskets and for Fr. Harber's famous homemade chocolates. Proceeds will go towards the support of the new Benedictine Convent in Silver City, the Pascua Pilgrimage, the Holy Name Society, and Altar and Rosary. Specific baskets will raise funds toward a new white chasuble to be made by the Sodality.

All are invited to bring baked goods for the St. Joseph/St. Patrick Table next Sunday.

Easter Flower Donation envelopes are available in the pews.

Mark Your Calendars: the Upper School will sing at the High Mass for the Feast of St. Joseph on March 19th. The school Mass that day will be at 8 a.m.

Please Continue to Pray for the upcoming General Chapter Meeting of the SSPX. Bishop Fellay has asked that we say the prayer to the Holy Ghost and, "Immaculate Heart of Mary, pray for us who have recourse to thee. St. Pius X, pray for us."
