

The Month of November is dedicated to the Poor Souls

Indulgences for the Poor Souls

The church has given many indulgences for the month of November, please take advantage of them. A plenary indulgence for the poor souls may be gained from Nov. 1-8 by visiting a cemetery and praying for the poor souls. Also, on Nov. 2nd a plenary indulgence may be gained by visiting a church and reciting an Our Father and a Creed. The other rules for gaining a plenary indulgence still apply. A partial indulgence can be gained any time by visiting a cemetery and praying for the poor souls.

Minute Meditation

We want to become saints, but in the easiest way possible, without effort, without fatigue or violence to ourselves; we should like to practice virtue, but only to a certain point, only when it does not ask for great sacrifice, or go too much against the grain. And so it happens that when faced with acts of virtue which exact greater self-renunciation, or the acceptance of difficult and repugnant things, such as quelling the resentments of self-love, renouncing an attempt to make our opinion prevail, submitting ourselves and meekly condescending to one who is opposed to us, very often—if not always—we refuse, thinking it unnecessary to go to such lengths.

Yet our progress in holiness depends precisely upon these acts which we hesitate to make; without them we shall always lead a mediocre life, we shall always remain on the same level, if indeed we do not lose ground. Let us beg the saints to help us overcome our laziness, our lassitude, our cowardice; let us ask those who have gone before us the strength to follow them. God offers us the grace which He gave the saints; but alas! What is lacking is our correspondence with it.
