

“The Veni Creator Spiritus is a magnificent and majestic invocation of the Holy Ghost, believed to have been composed before the tenth century. In a series of splendid pictures it represents the Holy Spirit coming down from His sublime abode of glory, to visit the souls of men and fill them with His Love and with His Grace; to fortify them with every virtue; to drive away their enemies and give them peace. Each stanza unveils to our astonished gaze new vistas of the mysterious splendor and majesty that shrouds this Divine Spirit. Our mental vision is dazzled and blinded by the unapproachable glory of the God-Head, shining through the veil of human language, as the summer sun at midday shines in places through the narrow chinks of a closely-shuttered window....

“Beg of the Holy Ghost so to rule and order everything within you, that in Him, in the language of St. Paul, ‘you may live and move and have your being.’”

Veni Creator Spiritus,
Mentes tuorum visita:
Imple superna gratia
Quae tu creasti pectora.

Come, Holy Ghost, Creator come,
From Thy bright heavenly throne,
Come, take possession of our souls
And make them all Thy own.

Qui diceris Paraclitus,
Altissimi donum Dei,
Fons vivus, ignis, caritas,
Et spiritalis unctio....

Thou Who art called the Paraclete;
Best gift of God above;
The living Spring, the living Fire,
Sweet Unction and true Love....
